Profile

I guess you could say I'm the kind of man that appreciates everyone around him and learns from his environment. I'm a really quick learner, and I provide a hand to people that are in need. I created my personal website, a cafe website for a buddy's cafe, and assisted a friend in creating a website for their academic endeavours. Able to effectively self-manage during independent projects and collaborate as part of a productive team.

Works

Aryabhatta Academy

MAY 2023

We created a website for the school. Together, my friend and I developed this project: he was the back-end developer and I served as the front-end developer and UX designer

Falani

MARCH 2023 — APRIL 2023

This is a website I have made for my friend's cafe. It was basically a pair project I have done with my friend, who helped me with this project, and we made this static website for the cafe.

Tonight You Belong To The Rain (Lo-fi)

APRIL 2021 — MAY 2021

This is the first piece of music I've ever produced. Essentially, it is a lo-fi
